

Grand Opening On-Deck for Extra Innings Muskegon

Press Release

February 16, 2009

Middleton, MA – February 16, 2009 – Ballplayers in Western Michigan can report to Spring Training later this week as Extra Innings, America’s premier indoor baseball and softball training center, celebrates the Grand Opening of its newest Michigan location in Spring Lake on Friday, February 20th and Saturday, February 21st from 10AM to 6PM. Guests are invited to swing by for this free event that will feature a live remote broadcast by The Champ 97.5’s Bret Bakita from 10-12 PM on Friday, complimentary food, free giveaways, tunnel rentals and player evaluations by the instructional staff. In addition, guests each day will get a 10% discount off all player pack membership purchases.

Extra Innings Muskegon is Western Michigan’s one-stop-shop for everything baseball and softball. The new facility, located at 6850 Norton Pines Drive in Spring Lake, will feature 12,000 square feet with 20 foot ceilings, 7 multi-use practice tunnels, a circuit training area, fully-stocked Pro Shop and a team & birthday party area.

Extra Innings Training Centers are unique in the marketplace. Each facility, regardless of size, offers year-round practice facilities for ballplayers of all ages and ability levels, professional instruction, and a nationally recognized Pro Shop that carries the top brands of baseball and softball equipment and apparel available today.

“After many delays and weather issues, we are very excited to be bringing a first class training facility and pro shop to the West Michigan area,” said Pete Gawkowski, owner of Extra Innings Muskegon. “We have been taking numerous phone calls from local baseball and softball players over the past couple months asking when the facility will open. Anticipation is running high and we can't wait to open the doors and begin helping players of all ages develop their skills at Extra Innings Muskegon.”
